JOINT STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to the Text Order of United States Magistrate Judge Hugh B. Scott dated January 31, 2020, plaintiffs Privacy International, American Civil Liberties Union, American Civil Liberties Union Foundation and Civil Liberties & Transparency Clinic, and defendants Federal Bureau of Investigation (“FBI”), Drug Enforcement Administration (“DEA”), Department of Justice Criminal Division, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”), U.S. Customs and Border Protection (“CBP”), Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”), U.S. Secret Service (“USSS”), Department of Justice Office of Inspector General (“DOJ-OIG”), Department of Homeland Security Office of the Inspector General (“DHS-OIG”), Department of Treasury Office of the Inspector General (“Treasury-OIG”) and Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (“TIGTA”) hereby file this joint quarterly status report.

In this action, plaintiffs seek to compel the production of records under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552 (“FOIA”). This status report describes the current status of defendants’ searches and their review and production of records.¹

1. TIGTA, DHS-OIG, Treasury-OIG and CBP: As explained in defendants’ Status Report dated September 10, 2019, four defendants – TIGTA, DHS-OIG, Treasury-OIG and CBP– have completed their searches and found no responsive records. See ECF No. 22 ¶¶ 15.g. & 16. Plaintiffs requested these agencies provide information of the nature of their searches. Pursuant to that request, TIGTA, DHS-OIG, and Treasury-OIG provided plaintiffs with descriptions of their searches on September 3, 2019, and CBP provided plaintiffs a description of its search on December 13, 2019. Based on those descriptions, plaintiffs have determined that they will not challenge the adequacy of the searches. See Joint Status Report dated Jan. 31, 2020, ECF No. 32 ¶ 1.

2. IRS, ICE, USSS, and DEA: As explained in prior Joint Status Report, four defendants – IRS, ICE, USSS, and DEA -- have completed their searches and productions in accordance with the interpretation and parameters set forth in defendants’ July 12, 2019 letter to plaintiffs. See ECF No. 32 ¶¶ 2-5. Plaintiffs are reviewing the records and the indices and/or explanation for the redactions. Id. If plaintiffs determine that they would like to challenge withholdings, redactions, or other aspects of these defendants’ responses, they will confer with defendants regarding a schedule for summary judgment briefing and submit any proposal to the Court in a subsequent status report. Id.

3. Criminal Division: The Criminal Division has completed its search for potentially responsive records and currently is in the process of reviewing and processing those records. As explained in the prior Joint Status Report, the Criminal Division proposes to process 500 pages of potentially responsive pages per month and produce to plaintiffs any responsive, non-exempt records on a rolling basis. ECF No. 28 ¶ 6. Since the filing of the last Joint Status Report (ECF No. 49), the Criminal Division has made three additional monthly responses – one on January 19, 2021, one on February 18, 2022, and one on March 18, 2022.²

4. DOJ-OIG: As explained in a prior report, DOJ-OIG completed its search for all responsive, non-exempt material. On March 6, 2020, DOJ-OIG sent plaintiffs’ counsel a letter producing 47 pages with portions of the records withheld pursuant to Exemptions 6, 7C, and/or 7E. ECF No. 37 ¶ 4.³ In the letter, DOJ-OIG also noted that it had sent portion of four of the 47

² The Criminal Division reports that it has approximately 7,000 pages that remain to be processed. The parties are discussing ways to narrow the scope so as to expedite completion of the processing, or otherwise to deal with this large volume of outstanding documents, but have not been able to reach an agreement at this time.

Plaintiffs state that they understand, based on representations from Defendants, that the remaining documents are all similar in nature and that they will all be withheld in full by the Defendant agency based on the same claims of exemption. Accordingly, one possibility under discussion among the parties is that if Plaintiffs wish to challenge Defendants’ withholding of these records, then a relatively small subset of these documents could be used as a “sample” to test the applicability of the claimed exemptions to the entire set of documents at issue.

Plaintiffs have proposed that the Criminal Division provide an index or explanation for the redactions and withheld-in-full documents processed to date, so that Plaintiffs may make an informed decision whether to seek judicial review through summary judgment of any of those withholdings. Discussions between the parties on that topic remain ongoing.

pages that contained information of substantial interest to the FBI for consultation. After completing its consultation with the FBI, the DOJ-OIG made a supplemental release to Plaintiffs' counsel on June 8, 2021. In the letter, it explained that it had referred 5 pages (not 4 pages) and that portions of the pages were being withheld under Exemptions 6, 7C and 7E.

5. FBI: As explained in the last status report, FBI has completed processing of the remaining records. See ECF No. 50, ¶ 5. In an attempt to narrow the issues in dispute, the FBI provided Plaintiff an index of documents redacted or withheld on February 28, 2022. Plaintiff is reviewing the index.

6. At this time, it is premature for the parties to propose a schedule for resolving the case because the Criminal Division has not completed their processing. The parties further propose filing another quarterly joint report on June 30, 2022. As part of the next proposed status report, one or both parties may propose further orders regarding the management and scheduling of this case.
